

National Gallery of Modern Art, Bengaluru
invites you to a lecture

MINIATURE AS STYLE, A SMALL REVOLUTION?

by

Dr. ANNAPURNA GARIMELLA

13, August, 6.00 p.m.

venue

National Gallery Of Modern Art,
Manikyavelu Mansion, Palace Road, Bengaluru - 560052
Ph: 080-233342338

Dr. Annapurna Garimella, Designer & Art Historian

Annapurna is a designer and art historian. She founded Art, Resources & Teaching (A.R.T.) in 2001. She works with Jackfruit Research & Design in Bangalore. Her current research interests include questions of heritage, contemporary visual cultures and medieval Indian art and architecture. She has edited several publications and written articles including Mulk Raj Anand – Shaping the Indian Modern, MARG Publications (2005) and Akbar Padamsee (upcoming).