

ART and ARCHITECTURE in the CITY

The National Gallery of Modern Art, Mumbai, Ministry of Culture, Government of India in association with The Guild and Avid Learning present a panel discussion around Walking Through Soul City, an exhaustive and authoritative retrospective exhibition, curated by Nancy Adajania, which celebrates Artist Sudhir Patwardhan's decades-long artistic journey and practice. Join Sudhir along with Artist Ranjit Kandalgaonkar, Artist and Illustrator Sameer Kulavoor and Sociologist Sujata Patel who will be in conversation with Architect, Theorist and Critic Kaiwan Mehta. These speakers will examine the diverse nuances and subtleties of Mumbai's dynamic cultural landscape as depicted through its art and architecture and discuss how experts and practitioners in these fields use the variegated and multifarious cultural mosaic of the city as a source of inspiration for their work. Join us for our final Multipolis Mumbai talk which will examine the various unique artistic and architectural trends and legacies in the city!
