In collaboration with

Citizens for Neralu

cordially invites you to the second edition of

Bengaluru Tree Festival

on 7th & 8th February, 2015.

The festival will include talks, workshops, storytelling sessions, and performances on trees and nature by eminent personalities including Malavika Sarukkai, Mala Kumar, Nagesh Hegde, Suresh Moona, Dr. TV Ramachandra & Vijay Thiruvady.

Our schedule has something for everyone, and it is here: <http://neralu.in/schedule>

We are entirely crowd-funded by citizens, and the festival is open to all. Our hope is that by making the process participatory in every way, we will be able to strike a chord with people by communicating some of the issues concerning trees, and rekindle their connect with nature.

We look forward to seeing you at the festival with your family and friends.
