

FREE ACTIVITY

DRAWING WORKSHOP

WITH SAMEER KULAVOOR

Untitled by M.V. Dhurandhar. Graphite on paper, 1913, dated to 7.11.13, private collection, New Delhi. Image courtesy DAG.

Join Sameer Kulavoor and the Education Team of the Dr Bhau Daji Lad Museum on a tour of M.V. Dhurandhar's paintings, watercolours and sketches of early 20th century Mumbai, on view at the NGMA Mumbai's ongoing exhibition 'M.V. Dhurandhar: The Romantic Realist'. The tour of the artworks will be followed by a drawing workshop conducted by Sameer Kulavoor - outside the NGMA! Participants will be encouraged to observe the urban landscape and people around the busy streets of Mumbai and learn how to chronicle contemporary cityscapes through drawing!

Participants are encouraged to bring their own sketchbooks and pencils / drawing pens.

About Sameer Kulavoor

Sameer Kulavoor's (b.1983) practice lies at the intersection of graphic design, illustration and art. He has been creating personal bodies of work, and self-publishing art books and zines that take a look at characteristic mannerisms and archetypal facets of urban surroundings, design and culture. Kulavoor is the founder of Bombay Duck Designs and co-founder and co-curator of 100% ZINE.

13 Oct 2018 | 11:30 am to 2:30 pm

Charges: Workshop is free of cost.

NGMA entrance ticket applicable to all.

Age group: Open to all over 15 years of age.

No. of seats: Limited of 30 spots for this workshop.

Register: education@bdlmuseum.org

राष्ट्रीय आधुनिक
कला संग्रहालय
NATIONAL GALLERY
OF MODERN ART

DR. BHAU DAJI LAD
MUMBAI CITY MUSEUM