

British Council and National Gallery of Modern Art, Bengaluru invite you to The Whistle

A poetry performance written and performed by Martin Figura

'The Whistle' is a one man play about the tragic story of the poet's parents. When Figura was nine years old, his father killed his mother. The Whistle is a 60 minute multi-media depiction of a post-war British childhood based on his award-winning poetry collection. Figura using poetry, family photographs and striking visuals, explores themes of identity, forgiveness, loss, adoption and family with insight and gentle humour, narrating a unique coming-of-age story which is both profound and uplifting.

On 29 January, Tuesday at 6:00 pm
