Aparna Banerjee (antaraarts.org) is an Odissi dancer and teacher at the Antara Arts Collective in Bangalore founded in 2009. It is a platform for building a vibrant community of teachers, students, and anyone that is interested in the Indian Classical Arts to learn, discuss, create, collaborate, participate, and perform.

Sarah Sohn (sarahsohn.com) is the 2012-2013 Fulbright-Nehru Scholar, and her Fulbright project is to create paintings inspired by the Kathakali dance and research its significance to the history, mythology and culture of storytelling in Kerala.

Art Resources and Teaching Trust (artscapeindia.org) gathers academics, historians, artists, craftspersons, students and others who work towards the common goal of increasing cultural and historical awareness of the arts in the contemporary global context.

Discover Montessori (discover-montessori.org) was founded more than ten years ago in Jayanagar as a dedicated learning environment for children between the age of 3-6 and based on Maria Montessori's system for early childhood learning.

National Gallery of Modern Art, Bengaluru (ngmaindia.gov.in/ngma_bengaluru.asp) is a Government of India gallery for modern art under Ministry of Culture and is a hub of art activities and a major cultural centre at Bengaluru.
