Write a story!

Choose a sculpture from our gardens and write a short story or a poem about it.

SPACE

Deserted corridors and empty halls
Paintings hanging from the walls
Some stare back, some don't
Colors changing as you walk
Wide leafy gardens, quiet and still
Spider webs collecting water
Frozen stone, unmarred by time
Braving the elements, rain and shine
Unchanged they go, as generations
Subtle marks doth man leave
An etching here, a carving there
